

Flatford Mill

East Bergholt, Suffolk

Client:	Field Studies Council
Head:	1.1m
Type:	Open compact
Capacity:	1560 l/s
Rotation speed:	33 rpm
Diameter:	2000 mm
Max power output:	11 kW
Est. annual output:	50,000 kWh
Annual CO ₂ saved:	21 tonnes

Application:

To provide a renewable source of electricity for the Field Studies Council Field Centre, including power to run an air source heat pump.

Flatford Mill is a Grade I-listed building owned by the National Trust, and leased for over 60 years to the Field Studies Council. The Mill is featured in many paintings by the famous artist John Constable .

